

General Data Protection Regulation

Publication of membership data on the Internet and Social Media

Hereby, the association board notes that enough technical measures for an adequate level of data protection were provided. Nevertheless, a comprehensive data protection cannot be guaranteed when publishing personal membership data on the Internet or on other media platforms (TV). Therefore, the association member takes note of the risk of a possible violation of the right of personality and is aware that:

- the personal data is also accessible in countries that do not have comparable data protection with Austria
- the confidentiality, the integrity (inviolability), the authenticity (realness) and the accessibility of personal data is not guaranteed

The association member makes the decision for publication of data on the Internet voluntarily and can withdraw its approval to the association board at any time.

Declaration

„I confirm taking note of the information mentioned above and agree, that the club _____ is entitled to publish the following data provided by me:

General Data:

First name, surname, place of residence, year of birth, nationality, pictures, ...

Other Data:

sporting performance, team affiliation

as stated on the following webpage of the club and on the following other webpages including associated Apps:

Homepage, Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, Video platforms, Homepages of Partners, league homepage etc.“

This document has to be proven to be accessible to the players; in the case of minors, this document must be demonstrably handed over to the respective legal guardian!

1
1